I've been an entertainer for about 17 years and am glad to see resources out there like this. My main focus is Acrobatics and hand balancing. I'm excited to learn a few new things though!

Hey Circusacro! Nice to have you with us. The forums are still in their infancy, but hopefully more people like you will come forward and start posting. Thanks for popping in :)

Best regards,

Admin

Hi to all and everyone,& even that guy in the corner in the green sweater picking his nose and making cheese balls into the shape of the Eiffel Tower! Howdy!

My name is Eddy Rice Jr. I have been a professional goofy fool,for about all my life.

I live in Hollywood California with the governor and terminator Schwarzenegger.

Actually I don't live"with him,"only in the same state.

My partner Veronica and I perform all over the U.S.A. doing Family Shows,Corporate Events,Company Picnic,Business Promotions,Special Events,TV shows,Movies,Commercials and Music Videos.

My most recent video is Michael Bubles "Everything." Tomorrow I will film a video with Dolly Pardon.

Our show is a unique blend of comedy,Slapstick,audience interactive games,& participation.

We combine Puppetry,Balloons,Face Painting,Costumed Mascot Cartoon Characters,high energy,funny dancing ,silly Magic,Wacky Balloon Twisting,Juggling & Stilt Walking!

We are looking to do our "Family Show",for Dubai and other Countries.The longer the contract the better.

Our Holiday Show has been very well received.It features Rudolph and Santa Puppet ,and two high energy funny ,hilarious Elves.

We travel very lightly.We don't need heavy props and huge sets, or rigging.

Our strolling ,and meeting the kids closeup,is one of our favorite things to do.We do this with hands on magic,puppets,balloons,& Costumed Characters.

Any advice ,would be helpful.We are learning every day,as we share our gift of laughter to the World!
